

Written consent in accordance with the rules on data protection

The personal data collected – in particular, surname, first name, date of birth, address, telephone number and email address – are necessary and required solely for the purpose of carrying out the language course or language test that I have enquired about and/or arranged. The data is collected on the basis of legal authorisations.

With my signature, I consent to the collection, storage and further processing of this data.

The consent of the participant is required for any further use of personal data and the collection of additional information.

Rights of the participant: access, rectification, erasure and blocking; right of objection:

According to Section 15 of the GDPR, you are entitled to ask inlingua Center Hannover (contractual partner) to grant you full access to the personal data stored about you.

According to Section 17 GDPR, you can request the rectification, erasure and blocking of individual personal data from the inlingua Center Hannover (contractual partner) at any time.

You can also exercise your right of objection at any time without stating any reasons, and amend or completely withdraw the declaration of consent that you gave with effect for the future. You can send your notice of withdrawal to the contractual partner by post, email or fax. You will not incur any costs other than the costs of postage and/or mailing according to the current basic rates.
